

Hope Grows Farm Norwood

Our family farm embraces the full spectrum of food production: humanely raised meats as well as organically grown vegetables and herbs. We also offer vegetable and herb transplants to encourage home growers to work towards self sufficiency and a true love of handcrafted food. In 2014 we will be working hard to offer a majority of open pollinated, heirloom varieties to preserve genetic diversity.

