

Article --- picture included

(Date)

(Scholarship recipient's name) of (city name) City recently received a $200 scholarship from the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Secretaries Association, South Central District. (Scholarship recipient's name) graduated from (school), in (date) and plans to attend (college).

(Scholarship recipient's name) teachers described her as an outstanding student, (counselor's or teacher's remarks). (Scholarship recipient's name) counselor stated that she had great potential for academic success and was supportive of the school and various activities.

NCCESA-SC District members are secretaries with NC Cooperative Extension Service South Central District in these 14 counties: Anson, Bladen, Chatham, Columbus, Cumberland, Harnett, Hoke, Lee, Montgomery, Moore, Richmond, Robeson, Scotland, and Stanly. Each year the association awards an academic scholarship to a student actively engaged or definitely planning to pursue a career as an office professional in one of 14 counties. This year (County name) County students could apply for the scholarship.

The North Carolina Cooperative Extension Secretaries Association, South Central District is honored to help (scholarship recipient's name) fulfill her dreams and accomplish the goals that she has planned for her life.

Caption for picture: Shown with (scholarship recipient's name) scholarship recipient, is (secretary name), Extension Secretary, (secretary name) Secretary, of the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service, (County name) County.