

North Carolina Cooperative Extension

North Carolina Cooperative Extension gives our county's residents easy access to the resources and expertise of NC State University and NC A&T State University. Through educational programs, publications, and events, Cooperative Extension agents deliver unbiased, research-based information to North Carolina citizens. We can answer your questions on a wide array of topics. To find out how we can help you, browse our site:

<http://www.ces.ncsu.edu/>

North Carolina Cooperative Extension is based at North Carolina's two land-grant institutions, North Carolina State University and North Carolina A&T State University, in all 100 counties and the Cherokee Reservation.

North Carolina State University and North Carolina A&T State University commit themselves to positive action to secure equal opportunity regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, age, or disability. In addition, the two Universities welcome all persons without regard to sexual orientation. North Carolina State University, North Carolina A&T State University, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and local governments cooperating.

North Carolina

Herter-O'Neal Scholarship for college students currently pursuing an Associate or Bachelors degree in a business-related field $750 for tuition and/or books!!

North Carolina Cooperative Extension

Secretaries
Association

Are you currently pursuing an Associate or Bachelors degree in business or a business-related field of study?

$750
Available

Look inside for more information!

North Carolina
Cooperative Extension
Secretaries Association

The Herter-O'Neal Scholarship is awarded each year to honor the work and dedication of Edith Herter and Frances O'Neal, founding members of the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Secretaries Association (NCCESA).

NCCESA membership is comprised of North Carolina Cooperative Extension secretaries in 101 County Extension Centers and the campus of North Carolina State University and North Carolina A&T State University.

Guidelines

The scholarship is open to students pursuing an Associate or Bachelors degree in a business-related field of study.

Applicants must be a legal resident of North Carolina.

All eligible applicants will be considered.

The privacy of all applicants will be protected.

The scholarship is targeted toward current and enrolling college students pursuing an Associate or Bachelors degree in a business-related field of study.

Funds are paid directly to the college rather than an individual and can be withdrawn to cover books and/or tuition.

To apply:

Pick up an application packet from the Financial Aid Office at your school.

OR

Contact your local County Extension Center. You can locate your local Center by logging on to:

<http://www.ces.ncsu.edu/index.php?page=countycenters>

