

North Carolina Extension Association of Family & Consumer Sciences

The Professional Association for North Carolina Cooperative Extension Family & Consumer Sciences Educators

2008 Northwest District Annual Report

The fall meeting for the Northwest District was held in Danbury on October 12th at Hanging Rock State Park Visitor's Center. Jaye McClure, Park Ranger, made welcoming remarks and provided a brief history of the park and its facilities.

During our business meeting, new officers were installed. A report was made by our national meeting delegate and other agents who attended as well. Jami Lawhon, FCS Agent in Davie County, was welcomed as our newest member and presented with the creed. Other business included discussion about re-districting, especially how monies that the district has already collected would be distributed.

A program entitled "Fall Gardening" was presented by Michael Hylton, Interim Stokes County Director. After lunch, the group put into practice "moving more" and hiked to the lower cascades at Hanging Rock, followed by a tour of Germanton Art Gallery.

The spring meeting was held at Stokes Medical Center Park in King on April 11th. During the business meeting, officers were elected for the following year and will be installed at the fall meeting. Committee reports were made, information was shared about the National Meeting, and updates on Federation and Executive Board Meeting were given.

A program called "Rainwater Harvesting" was presented by Wendi Hartup, Natural Resources Area Extension Agent. After lunch, the group toured Mitchell's Nursery & Greenhouse. The fall meeting is scheduled for November 7th in Wilkes County.

Submitted by:
Janelle Y. Kent, President
Northwest District