

North Carolina Extension Association of Family & Consumer Sciences

The Professional Association for North Carolina Cooperative Extension Family & Consumer Sciences Educators

2010 North Central District Annual Report

The Fall 2009 North Central District FCS Extension Agents Association met Friday, October 16th in Lexington, NC. Davidson County FCS Agent, Jeannie Leonard and County manager Robert Hyatt welcomed the group following the call to order by President Joan Reid. It was noted that this was a historic meeting, the first official meeting of the Association merging representatives from the past Extension Districts into the new North Central. Susan Garkalns gave the reflection of the day, followed by recognition of the 2009 officers by Joan Reid.

2010 Slate of Officers

North Central District Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences

President – Nekeidra Morrison

President- Elect-Vacant

Secretary-Bess Whitt

Treasurer-Deborah Taylor

Vice President, Public Affairs –Rachel Moneverdi

VP, Awards & Recognition- Geissler Baker

VP, Professional Development- Sheila Dalcoe

VP, Member Resources- Sonya Patterson

Budget-Deborah Taylor

Bylaws

Historian –Jennifer Brown

Nominating-Mary Helen Jones

The 2010 officers were installed by Mary Helen Jones.

Jeannie Leonard distributed a copy of suggested committees with the expectation of all members to volunteer for the committee of their choice. Since the Northwest District is helping to host, our plan is to have co-chairs representing Northwest and North Central Districts. Preliminary work was done utilizing the Brookstown Inn in Winston Salem and is the venue of choice for our 2010 State meeting. A series of correspondence will continue as plans move forward in preparation for the meeting also, the goal is to establish a website for communication purposes to help in planning the 2010 meeting.

The Spring District meeting will be held Friday, March 26th at the Gateway University Research Park 5900 Summit Avenue in Greensboro, NC.

Announcements

-DSA award presented to Shelia Delcoe at the NEAFCS meeting in Birmingham, Alabama.

-Evelyn Deloatch retired as Family and Consumer Sciences Agent from Alamance County with 32 plus years of service.

-Mary Helen Jones is currently the Interim County Extension Director in Vance County.

-Frances Turner (retired agent from Wake County) lost her mother.

Respectfully Submitted,

Nekeidra F. Morrison, North Central District President

2010 North Central District Report
NCEAFCS District Presidents Report
Board of Directors Meeting
August 3, 2010

The Spring 2010 North Central District FCS Extension Agents Association met Friday, March 26 at the Gateway University Research Park in Browns Summit, NC. North Central President Nekeidra Morrison and Elvis Graves, National Technology Specialist with the USDA, welcomed us to the meeting and to the USDA site. Shelia Dalcoe gave the reflection of the day and the meeting began with discussion on the upcoming state meeting. The State Executive Board met in March and approved a general budget and agenda for the meeting. The budget was developed by looking at past district (South Central) budget for their meeting. Additional discussion was given to retiree's functions, fees, tours and request for agents to present programs showcasing the good works done on the county level. Copies of the revised benevolence policy were shared, discussed, and a motion was made to accept the policy as revised. Vice President of Professional Development Shelia Dalcoe encouraged members to take advantage of professional development opportunities and to share additional information on opportunities available to the membership.

Nominating Mary Helen Jones asked members to take on leadership rolls within the association and thanked members who accepted the challenge.

2011 Slate of Officers

North Central District Extension Association of Family and Consume Sciences

President-Geissler Baker

President-Elect-Sonya Patterson

VP Public Affairs-Rachel Monteverdi

VP Awards & Recognition-Geissler Baker

VP Professional Development-Shelia Dalcoe

VP Member Resources-Sonya Patterson

Secretary- Mary Helen Jones

Treasurer-Deborah Taylor
Advisor-Nekeidra Morrison
Historian-Jennifer Brown

Fall District meeting will be held Friday, October 1 2010 in Alamance County.

Announcements

- New Member: Rachel Monteverdi, Warren County
- Retirement: Brenda Morris, Janelle Kent, Susan Garkalns, Evelyn Deloatch

Submitted by
Nekeidra F. Morrison, President
North Central District

North Carolina Extension Association of Family & Consumer Sciences

The Professional Association for North Carolina Cooperative Extension Family & Consumer Sciences Educators.

2010 North Central District President's Report

Fall Meeting: The North Central District Fall meeting was held on Friday, October 16, 2009 in Lexington, NC. Davidson County FCS Agent, Jeannie Leonard and County manager Robert Hyatt welcomed the group and was noted that this was a historic meeting, the first official meeting of the Association merging representatives from the past Extension Districts into the new North Central.

Preliminary work was done utilizing the nationally registered historic Brookstown Inn in Winston Salem, NC and was selected as the venue of choice for the 2010 State meeting. A series of correspondence continued as plans moved forward in preparation for the meeting.

Spring Meeting: The North Central District Spring meeting was held on Friday, March 26, 2010 at the Gateway University Research Park in Browns Summit, NC. The State Executive Board met in March and approved a general budget and agenda for the meeting. Agents were encouraged to present programs, showcasing current works on the county level. This year's conference was themed FCS "99 and Counting", highlighting the ninety-nine years of wonderful men and women who have consistently provided relevant, responsive, and life-changing programming to the citizens of North Carolina. A revised copy of the benevolence policy was voted in favor of and accepted as revised.

NC District News:

- DSA award presented to Shelia Delcoe at the NEAFCS meeting in Birmingham, Alabama.
- Mary Helen Jones, Extension Director, Vance County
- Retirement: Evelyn Deloatch, Brenda Morris, Janelle Kent, Susan Garkalnes

- New Members: Rachel Monteverdi, Warren County
- Upcoming Meeting: Fall District meeting will be held Friday, October 1, 2010 in Alamance County.

Submitted by
Nekeidra F. Morrison, President
North Central District