

Are You Into It?

*4-H is the largest educational youth organization in the world outside of the public school system.

*4-H is an educational youth program conducted by the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service through the land grant universities (N.C. State University and N.C. A&T State University).

*Involves 2,167 youth and over 357 volunteers in Chatham County.

*Involves 229,000 youth and 32,000 volunteers in North Carolina.

*Offers citizenship, leadership, and self-esteem building activities.

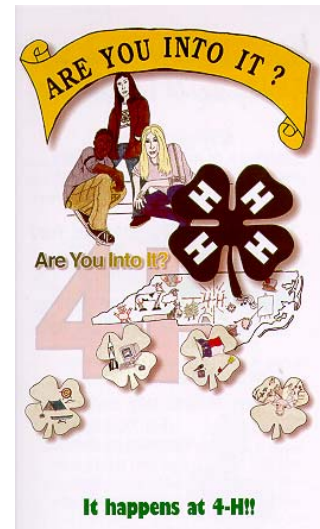

*Helping your community and serving others through community service projects.

*Deals with youth issues, how to say no to peer pressure, and others.

*Entire family and community is encouraged to get involved.

*4-H club plans programs based on the needs and interests of the club members.

4-H is for all boys and girls regardless of where you live, in the city, on the farm, or in between.

A United Way Agency