

North Carolina 4-H Youth Development
Declaration of Intent to Compete
in a County of Non-Residence

This form addresses the need for youth, families and agents to have a clear understanding regarding youth competing in other 4-H programs other than in their home county. Examples of the potential uses of this form include:

1. Families who own property in multiple counties
2. Youth who may live near the county lines.
3. Youth who may choose to participate in another county 4-H program due to unique opportunities that may be available.
4. Opportunities in multi-county programs due to CES Staffing.

North Carolina 4-H Youth Development
Declaration of Intent to Compete
In a County of Non-Residence

I, _____, declare that for the project year indicated, I will represent the identified county (or multi-county region), in which I am not a resident. I understand that this declaration will not be used for competitive advantages and that I may not use this privilege to qualify for awards, trips, prizes, or scholarships in one county or region, or district after failing to qualify for the same recognition in another county, region, or district.

All of the following signatures must approve of this arrangement.

Please complete one form for each program area!!
