

Duplin County - April 7, 2008

Vine dieback and death, possibly due to Botryosphaeria colonization of wounds following the 2007 Easter Freeze. This grower followed recommendations for pruning freeze-damaged vines – these vines were pruned severely, well beyond the freeze-damage, came back and even made it down the wire last year.

