

Forestry Issues Forum Teleconference

The next teleconference broadcast will take place on
Wednesday, November 11, 2009
9:00 am to noon
The topic of this teleconference is:

Forest Certification: A Progress and Status Report

This teleconference will present results of the most recent research on the impacts and costs of forest certification for landowners and managers. We will also describe recent changes to the FSC, SFI and Tree Farm forest management standards, and provide an update on chain of custody certification, group certification and FSC Family Forest Certification in NC and region-wide. Speakers include:

- Dr. Fred Cabbage, Professor, Forest Policy and Certification, NCSU Department of Forestry and Environmental Resources
- Dr. Susan Moore, Extension Associate Professor and Director, NCSU Forestry & Environmental Outreach Program,
- Ms. Alyx Perry, Director, Southern Forests Network, Asheville, NC
