About Our Trainer—Vicki Taylor

Vicki has owned and operated a small international consulting business since 1990 maintaining offices in Troutman, NC and London, England. Vicki works with business, non-profits, and community leaders in communication and presentation skills, project and priority management, strategic planning, leadership, innovation and creativity. She provides facilitation services in a broad number of areas. Vicki is also a lawyer and has served as the Executive Coordinator for the Catawba-Wataree Relicensing Coalition since 2000.

Vicki serves on the board of directors of the Low Impact Hydropower Institute, is on the Southeast Advisory Council for American Rivers, chairs the Environmental Cabinet of the Centralina Council of Governments Connect Program and is on the Advisory Committee for Lake Norman State Park.

Vicki has conducted an annual training in public presentation skills for the Natural Resources Leadership Institute (NRLI) since 2003, consistently providing a highly regarded and effective training session.

Raleigh, NC

COMMUNICATING AT YOUR BEST: SPEAKING WITH PASSION! SPEAKING THAT MATTERS

The 2011 Natural Resources Leadership Association is pleased to present Vicki Taylor an internationally known trainer in communication and presentation skills.

What can you expect to experience from the workshop?

- ◆ Discovery of your source of confidence when speaking in front of people
- ◆ Understanding how to choose and organize content to make it easy to follow
- ◆ Learning how to make your points powerfully and memorable
- ◆ Practice in front of the group with feedback that encourages experimentation and full self expression
- ◆ Engagement with an audience so you can be aware and sensitive to them as you speak
- ◆ Use of your natural voice to complement the spirit of your subject matter
- ◆ Learn to leave clear messages, inform and/or inspire
- ◆ Experience coming across the way you want to
