

28th Annual Fur, Fish 'n Game Rendezvous

Millstone 4-H Center

June 20-25, 2010

A once in a lifetime outdoor learning experience for boys and girls ages 12 to 15!

Open to the first 100 registrants, the Beginning Fur, Fish 'n Game Camp is designed to give participants a better understanding of our natural resources and how we interact with them.

Fur, Fish 'n Game campers will have the opportunity to:

- Gain Hunter Safety Certification while learning about firearm safety for the field and home.
- Study wildlife and forests as renewable resources
- Learn about fishing and aquatic biology
- Study hunting as a viable wildlife management practice
- Gain knowledge useful in formulating an outdoor ethic
- Practice outdoor recreation skills such as archery, riflery, canoeing, orienteering, and fishing
- Other classes and activities include retriever training, swimming, snake identification, first aid, ropes course, birds of prey, and taxidermy

The Fur, Fish 'n Game Rendezvous Camp is sponsored by the NC Cooperative Extension Service, NC Wildlife Resources Commission, Great Outdoor Provision Company, NC Division of Forest Resources, Eastern Carolina Hunting Retriever Club, and the Wake County Wildlife Club. Millstone 4-H Center, nestled in the beautiful Sandhills Game Lands of Richmond County, serves as the site for the program. Millstone 4-H Center, an American Camping Association nationally accredited camp, provides trained camp counselors while class instruction is lead by professional natural resource managers.

Questions regarding registration and fees should be directed to Millstone 4-H Center, at 910-652-5905. Questions concerning the camp content and activities can be directed to Renee Strnad, NC Cooperative Extension Service, at 919-515-5518.
