

Case studies: Risers and Tank Locators
Tricia Angoli,
NCDENR-OSWW

Risers are required on septic tanks and pump tanks to provide access to the tanks so that routine operation and maintenance can be performed. Not all homeowners are pleased with the plastic or concrete riser that rises above the ground surface in their yard. Problems with risers, from homeowner landscaping to lawn mowers to degradation of the risers in general, will be presented.