ECA Mission

Strengthen families and communities through

- Leadership Development
- Community Action
- Education Support
- Research-based education provide by two Universities

ECA Then and Now

Extension & Community Association (ECA), formerly known as Home Demonstration Clubs and later as Extension Homemakers, was founded in 1913. Presently, North Carolina Extension & Community Association (NCECA) has over 1,500 members in 79 counties, divided into five districts. The Catawba County ECA is in the West Central District and has 43 members in eight clubs.

Through collaboration with North Carolina Cooperative Extension (NCCE), ECA members serve in a volunteer role in many areas to strengthen families and improve the quality of life within Catawba County. A wide variety of educational and social opportunities are available to ECA members.

ECA Activities

- Enjoy fun-filled educational trips, activities and events that foster new friendships and increase knowledge of our area and state.
- Learn and share up-to-date information for making healthy lifestyle choices.
- Learn and share current facts on social issues that affect children and adults
- Provide a wide variety of services to the public schools, county fair, 4-H, and family and consumer services.
- Support children and adults of all ages through projects and activities that members plan, make, collect, and/or distribute.

Becoming a Member

1. Visit several clubs to find the one that best meets your needs and interests.
2. Attend county special interest programs to meet members and learn firsthand what ECA can offer you.
3. Complete the membership information (on the right) and submit with your annual dues of $12.00.
