

NCACC Youth Summit

Multimedia Consent & Release Form

Aug. 15-16, 2014, Doubletree Biltmore/Renaissance Asheville, Buncombe County

The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners (NCACC) and North Carolina 4-H, a youth development component of North Carolina Cooperative Extension, may use photographs, video and audio of NCACC Youth Summit participants and volunteers, and/or printed, electronic or illustrative material produced by participants for promotional, educational, public relations, marketing or accountability purposes in a number of printed or electronic formats, including:

- CountyLines, a monthly printed and electronic publication of the NCACC that is distributed mainly to county commissioners, county staff, and State of North Carolina elected and appointed leaders;
- the NCACC’s websites, www.ncacc.org and www.welcometoyourcounty.org, and its social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Vimeo);
- the NCACC Annual Conference program and promotional mailings; and
- 4-H newsletters, media presentations or publications produced by 4-H Youth Development or agencies contracted by 4-H in slide, photographic, audio, video, written or illustrated presentations.

In addition, photographs that include Youth Summit participants and volunteers may be distributed to County Managers’ offices for possible distribution to local media outlets.

This form allows you to choose whether you consent to have your images, likeness and/or property included in photographs, and/or video and audio recordings, published or distributed by the NCACC or 4-H through the media listed above, and consent to have your name and identity revealed therein or by descriptive text or commentary.

By signing this form, you expressly release the NCACC, and North Carolina State University and its agents, employees, licensees and assigns from any and all claims that you have for invasion of privacy, right of publicity, defamation, copyright infringement, or any other causes of action arising out of the use, adaptation, reproduction, distribution, broadcast or exhibition of such recordings of your image, voice or likeness.

This consent and release is entirely optional, and participants/volunteers who do not give permission remain eligible for Youth Summit participation and for 4-H services, benefits and privileges.
