

4-County 4-H Master Volunteer Revolution

JOIN | THE REVOLUTION
OF RESPONSIBILITY
North Carolina

Volunteers, are you ready to work toward greatness?

If so, Cumberland, Hoke, Moore, and Robeson County 4-H Programs would like to invite you to join our series of workshops designed to do just that. All workshops are open to all 4-H volunteers and are wonderful training to make sure you get your hours in.

Four Workshops and ACE College Will Be Conducted

- Workshop 1: April 25 - Robeson County -- Topic: Club Fun - How to Make Your Meetings Anything But a Well-Kept Secret.
- Workshop 2: May 9 - Cumberland County -- Topic: Difficult Conversations - How to Have Conversations You Would Rather Ignore.
- Workshop 3: August 22 - Hoke County -- Topic: Spitball - Let's Throw Some Ideas and Challenges Out There and See What Sticks.
- Workshop 4: September 19 - Moore County -- Topic: Where Do We Go From Here? Winding It Down and Laying the Groundwork for 2017.

ACE College: August 27-Cumberland County - Additional information to be forthcoming.

Workshops will be held at each County Extension Center from 6:30 - 8:00 p.m.
A light dinner and supplies will be provided.

Signup Deadline: One Week Prior to Workshop Date

For more information, please contact Jessica Drake, Extension 4-H agent, at 910-321-6867.

For accommodations for persons with disabilities, contact the 4-H staff at 910-321-6867 no later than five business days before the event.

NC State University
A&T State University
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION
Empowering People • Providing Solutions