What do 4-year universities, technical schools, and entry-level jobs have in common? The need for GREAT students!!! Every year students apply, interview, and plan for their next step. Find out what helps set some of those successful students apart from their peers.

Attendees will hear from local leaders on how they have become successful, learn communication and interview skills that will serve a lifetime, discover how to complete resumes and applications, examine the necessity of managing social media imaging, and engage with other youth on how to overcome challenges. Take a step in a positive direction by learning how to stand out for all the right reasons and surrounding yourselves with others who will celebrate your upcoming success!

Registration is limited to the first one hundred (100) youth. Please reserve your spot by contacting Crystal Glover, Youth Development & Cultural Arts Program Coordinator, at 910-433-1021 or Jeanie Edwards, Administrative Support Specialist, 4-H, at 910-321-6864.
