The North Carolina Horse Judging Clinic started in 1987 and is held annually. The two-day clinic provides Open Horse Show Judges with an opportunity to improve their judging skills. A panel of top breed recognized professional judges demonstrate judging techniques using visuals and until 2009, live demonstrations. Due to economic constraints and difficulty locating horses, the clinic format switched from live horses to the use of DVD's and videotapes. Participants judged and placed 27 classes in a simulated Open Horse Show setting. The classes represented a variety of breeds, events and riding styles. Each judge's class placings and exam scores were tabulated and ranked by division using the George A. Hormel and Co. Cut System.

The 2017 clinic featured the following nationally recognized judges:

Tony Burris – Western Judge, North Carolina
Keith Hastings – Hunt Seat Judge, North Carolina
Virginia Godwin – Saddle Seat Judge, North Carolina
Shannon Gibbs – Non-Trotting Judge, North Carolina

The official cuts committee was comprised of:

Alaina Cross, NCSU Extension Associate
Lori Stroud, NCSU Extension Assistant

Individuals listed in this publication attended the 2015, 2016 or 2017 North Carolina Open Horse Show Judges' Clinic and indicated they would be available to judge shows. The area of expertise (X) indicates the judges' preference in judging assignments and is not necessarily representative of their clinic performance. Judges receiving an (*) asterisk in their judging preference area indicate they scored 90% or better in that respective division (a minimum of the top one-third of participating judges certified in each division regardless of score). Participants were also required to take a written exam for each division. Scores for the exams were based on a 0-50 score and those scores were included, along with class scores in each of the respective divisions.

CERTIFICATION DOES NOT GUARANTEE EXPERTISE IN JUDGING AN ACTUAL SHOW. WHEN APPROPRIATE, SHOW MANAGEMENT IS ENCOURAGED TO REQUEST REFERENCES TO CLARIFY JUDGING ABILITY, SIZE AND NUMBER OF SHOWS JUDGED, PERSONAL APPEARANCE AND ATTIRE WHILE JUDGING.

The next judging certification date will be promoted online at the Extension Horse Husbandry website listed under adult programs. Judges who last attended the 2015 or earlier clinic, are required to attend the 2018 clinic to remain on the judges list.
