

Title: Food Safety Modernization Action Training for Preventive Controls Qualified Individuals

Dates: September 19th (10am) to September 21st (3pm)

Location: J. Edward Booth Field Learning Lab, 4000 Chi Rd, Raleigh, NC 27603

Description: One of the requirements of the new Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA) regulations is the development of a food safety plan for facilities required to conduct a hazard analysis and implement preventive controls. The development and implementation of the plan is to be done under the supervision of a Preventive Controls Qualified Individual (PCQI). This 20 hour training course follows the Food Safety Preventive Controls Alliance (FSPCA) standardized curriculum recognized by the FDA, and is taught by certified lead instructors. Individuals successfully completing the course will receive an official certificate from FSPCA.

Cost: Carolina Feed Industry Association Members: $525

Others: $600

Course registration includes all course materials, lunches and breaks.

Registration: Registration is open through Friday, September 2nd. Limited space is available, and registrants will be placed in available seats on a first-come, first-served basis.

Through Friday, August 12th, only North Carolina or South Carolina registrants will secure available seats for the course. It is requested that anyone interested in registering for the course from other locations please complete registration after August 12th. Any registrations from other locations prior to this date will be charged and placed on a waiting list. If seats are not ultimately available, charges will be refunded.

If the course is full and you wish to be placed on a waiting list, please email Dr. Adam Fahrenholz (Adam_Fahrenholz@ncsu.edu) as additional seats may be made available dependent on demand. Also, if you are unable to secure a seat or this offering does not fit into your schedule, but you would like to confirm your interest in attending a potential second offering of the course later in the fall, please contact Dr. Fahrenholz as well.

Lodging: 30 rooms have been placed on hold at the Double Tree Raleigh Brownstone Hotel. The participant rate is $129.00 plus tax. Your HiltonLink is: <http://doubletree.hilton.com/en/dt/groups/personalized/R/RDUDNDT-FSM-20160917/index.jhtml> The room block is available through August 28, 2016.

Transportation: It is expected that the majority of participants will be driving to attend the course, and will thus provide their own transportation. If other transportation needs are required, please contact the course organizers.
