

Currituck County Extension Intern

Location: Currituck County

Program Area: 4-H

Project Title: 4-H STEM Intern

Immediate/Site Supervisor: Sherry Fischlshweiger

Other mentors/supervisors: Cameron Lowe, Tom Harrell, Billy Caudle

Position

Description/Responsibilities:

Intern will assist with Science, Technology, Engineering and Math related summer workshops and camps. Will assist with lesson planning, delivery, and evaluation.

Key program responsibility will be developing evaluation instruments, and analyzing outcomes. May assist and observe other areas of Extension programming as well.

Preferred qualifications/previous coursework:

- No previous coursework required
- Experience with youth preferable

Benefits/skills student will gain through this internship:

- Gain first-hand experience with a large and very dynamic county 4-H program
- Will have the opportunity to put evaluation theory into practice
- Will practice lesson planning and delivery skills in a non-formal educational setting
- Will observe and develop a deeper understanding of a highly functioning county Extension program

Additional Information:

Temporary (apartment style) housing available at no cost to intern.