

Edgecombe County Extension Intern

Location: Edgecombe County

Program Areas: 4-H & Agriculture

Project Title: Youth & Agriculture Summer Programming Focus

Immediate/Site Supervisor: Tanya Heath

Other mentors/supervisors: Art Bradley, Misty Varnell, Spencer Thomas, Kelsey Lichtenwalner

Position Description/Responsibilities:

The Youth & Agriculture Summer Programming Focus will focus on teaching agriculture workshops in our 4-H summer fun program, assist with summer field trips, agriculture safety days & gardening programs.

This program will also include assisting with on-farm tests, community gardening programs, and visiting farmers with respective agents to help clients in the county.

Preferred qualifications/previous coursework:

- Youth Development classes or previous student in 4-H or FFA programs
- Coursework may include some agriculture related fields (horticulture, agronomy, livestock, etc.)

Benefits/skills student will gain through this internship:

- Planning & Communication skills
- Learn valuable on the job training to work with youth as well as adults
- Learn to adapt their schedules to meet the needs of clients in a variety of job responsibilities