

Edgecombe County Extension Intern

Location: Edgecombe County

Program Area: 4-H Youth Development

Immediate/Site Supervisor: Tanya Heath

Position Description/Responsibilities:

Intern will provide assistance with summer youth programs in a variety of ways from assisting with marketing efforts, program management, teaching workshops and evaluation.

Intern will also assist 4-H families with 4-H program questions, enrollment and required procedures for participation.

Preferred qualifications/previous coursework:

Former 4-H or FFA member;
any work with youth organizations.

Benefits/skills student will gain through this internship:

The intern will receive well balanced Intern will develop skills in Time Management, Leadership and Organization to list a few.

The intern will get a deep understanding of what it takes to run a youth program in keeping with safety guidelines, behavior management, leading workshops, marketing the program, assisting with enrollment procedures in addition to speaking with community leaders to set up educational workshops.

Additional Information

Edgecombe County is a rural county that is rich in agriculture. We strive to provide a variety of classes that would fit anyone's needs. We do strive to put an emphasis on agriculture classes from Tractor & Agriculture Safety, Poultry Production, Livestock Management and Agricultural Literacy programs.

